

— The Engineering Society of Detroit —
Jobs Available Listing

---

Hiring Organization:	Giffels, Inc.
Employer Description:	The Ingenium Group of companies is a full service, consulting and property development organization offering architectural, engineering, management and construction services. With over 50 years of continuous operations, the Ingenium Group is an employee-owned Canadian company that relies on the expertise of its 900 employees to be the partner of choice for the design and implementation of integrated building and engineering solutions. Giffels, Inc. is a division of the Ingenium Group, which also includes Giffels Design Build Inc. and NORR Architects and Engineers.
Job Title &amp; Status:	Project Manager
Job Location(s):	Southfield, Michigan
Salary level:
Job Description:	The Project Manager is responsible for prioritizing and making decisions for the execution of the projects and providing the team with the tools and methodology to effectively execute their missions. Works with the project team to plan, track, and manages all projects/programs utilizing standard methodology, risk assessment, and solid communication practices. Collaborates with internal business partners to ensure efficient end-to-end business processes and successful relationships. Oversees and validates the quality of processes, standard procedures, quality audits/review, communication practices, process re-engineering, consistency of the processes documents, communication methods, and distribution of information. Seeks out and is aware of changes in standards and their application methodologies. Facilitates effective change management. Provides a means for continuous process improvement through the use of standard methodologies. Proposes organization and process improvements based on international standards and industry best practices.

Job Requirements:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Bachelor's degree in Engineering or Architecture is a minimum although a Master's degree would be considered an asset</li><li>• Minimum 5-7 years full time experience in Project Management</li><li>• Automotive/Industrial and Commercial industry experience is required</li><li>• Registered Engineer or Architect</li><li>• Effective communication (verbal and written)</li><li>• Very good organizational skills</li></ul>
Contact Information:	hr@giffels.com
Job Posting Date:	2/14/07